

Season 1 Episode 13

The Play of the Valkyries

In a dark, dirty and dusty prison, Annie wakes up and she was sleeping in a dirty flat bed that is hard as a rock. Annie looks around the room and she sees she is in an old dirty prison. Annie said, "Where am I and how did I get here?" Annie looks some more without leaving the bed and she said, "Hello! Is there anyone here?" A heavy metal door opens and a small group of WWII German soldiers under command of a high-ranking German colonel march in and they have Isaac and Wayon in old dirty clothes and they throw them in the prison. Annie said, "Isaac, Wayon, what is happening?" Isaac said, "I have no clue. One minute, I'm living the best life I could live and the next thing I know, I am captured by Axis Germans and they said I am to be detained." Wayon said, "What did we do wrong? Was it the time I sang that song?" Annie gets out of bed and she sees a window of metal bars and she looks outside. She sees a typical European street in the 1940's being occupied by Axis Germans. Annie sees German symbol flags from WWII fly outside all the buildings. Annie gets back down, and she said, "It seems as if we traveled through time. Someone brought us back into the 1940's somewhere in Europe that is being occupied by Axis Germans." Isaac said, "How is that possible? This cannot be. I can't live in the 40's. I have a life on the internet watching videos and making fun of losers." Annie said, "Looks like you're going to be one of those losers for once. We need an escape plan and we need one now."

Annie, Isaac, and Wayon come up with an escape plan and they put it into action. Annie and Wayon hide on both sides of the door and they grab frying pans from the kitchen area in the prison room they're in. Isaac jumps up and down holding onto his foot. Isaac said, "Ow! Ow! Ow! My feet are breaking out again! Ow! Ow! I think I might be turning into the Unbreakable Bulk!" Annie gives Isaac a stern look and she said, "Is that the best you can think of? I told you to distract not make a fool of yourself. Come up with something better." Isaac said, "Fine, I will." Isaac screams, "I have to go to the bathroom and it is clogged! I have to go badly and I think I can't hold it anymore!" Annie rolls her eyes thinking of how much of an idiot Isaac is. The Germans enter the room and one of them said, "I can unclog your toilet for you." Annie and Wayon bash the German in the head and he falls to the ground. The door is open, and Annie grabs his keys and his weapon, and they run out. Isaac sees the weapon and he said, "Cool, a German machine gun. Those are the best from what they say." They run through the halls and they head down the stairs and they see the front door. They see it is large and wide open. They run outside and the guards see them, and they activate their sniper turrets. Annie points the gun at them and she shoots down the gun turrets destroying them. She runs to the streets and the three of them crash into a vegetable stand where a short fat guy serves vegetables. The Axis Germans come close and Annie knocks them out with some pans she stole. They keep running and they are being chased by Germans. Annie grabs onto a pearl necklace being sold on the street and she breaks it and she spills all the pearls on the ground and the Axis

Germans chasing them slip and fall. Annie, Isaac, and Wayon keep running and they come to a four-way intersection and they try to figure out which way they should go. They are stuck, and Axis Germans come and outnumber them by a lot. All the Axis Germans on the streets aim their German machine guns at Annie, Isaac, and Wayon. Annie drops her pan and she raises her hands in surrender. Isaac and Wayon do the same. Just then, they hear an epic trumpet sound and they see fighter planes in the sky that belong to the American Airforce. One of them flies close to the ground and it shoots down and scares the Axis Germans that are surrounding, Annie, Isaac, and Wayon away. The plane lands and a door opens on it. A familiar but more manly sounding voice said, "Come in." The three of them jump in and the plane flies away.

Annie said, "Thanks whoever you are. You saved our lives down there." The pilot turns around and it is Jake and he looks far more manly and heroic than he does normally. Jake even sounds more like a super hero. Jake said, "I will take the three of you to the resistance camp where our base has been set up." Annie said, "Jake, is that you?" Jake said, "Why yes, it is." Annie said, "Can you tell us what's going on here?" Jake said, "I can. You see, it is 1944 and the Axis Germans have successfully taken over Europe and they have spread their forces to other parts of the world." Annie said, "Where are we exactly?" Jake said, "We are in San Francisco. The Axis German forces just made it there with some help from their Japanese allies. I was in the American Airforce and my squadron has been destroyed. I formed a resistance group in San Francisco and I will take you there." Annie said, "Do you know anything about the present day, I mean the crazy town that we were wrongfully brought to?" Jake said, "The only crazy town I know of is the one that we live in that's ruled by Axis Germans. We are here." Jake lands the plane and they leave and they enter an underground bombproof building. There is old-style rock and roll music playing and soldiers and civilians are hanging out drinking and talking about things. Annie sees a stage and she sees Dana is wearing a 40's style dress and her band is dressed the same. They are playing old-time rock and roll, and Dana is singing about things that were relevant in the 40's. Annie goes to the bar and she is given a large glass of beer. Annie sips it and she spits it out over how bad it tastes. Annie stares at the stage and the song is over and Dana goes to the bar to get a drink. Annie said, "Dana." Dana sees Annie and she said, "Hello, Annie. It is nice to see you were saved." Annie said, "Do you know what is going on here? Is this a dream or a delusion?" Dana said, "I wish it were. Sadly, it's not." Annie said, "Do you know anything about the crazy town I'm trapped in that I asked you to help me escape from?" Dana said, "Do you mean the Axis German prison camp, yeah I tried to save you. I am not that good at working planes and machines, so I got our pilot, Jake to come and rescue you." Annie said, "This keeps getting stranger and stranger."

Jake walks on stage and he takes the microphone and he said, "May I have your attention please!" I just got word from the allied forces that the Axis Germans have overthrown Washington D.C. Franklin Roosevelt has been held hostage, and his vice president is also held hostage. America has just surrendered to the Third Reich and now the president of the United States is, Burger Meister." People in the audience start freaking out. They start crying and panicking beyond anything else. Annie goes to the stage and she grabs the microphone out of Jake's hand and she said, "Attention everybody! This is not real. There are no Axis Germans here at all. This is all a delusion. This is all fake. This is all someone's plot to take over our minds. We actually live in 2002 and we live in a crazy town that the government runs to detain people they think do not belong in society. This is probably just some stage they set up as part of their plan. It may seem very real to us, but it is not. Isaac and Wayon can confirm it. Where are they?" Annie sees Isaac and Wayon gobbling up bread and Annie said, "Isaac, Wayon, come to the stage." Isaac said, "It's cool here." Annie said, "Just admit that you come from the future and this is some kind of trap." Isaac said, "Maybe it's not a trap and the future is the delusion." Annie's eyes go big as she realizes what may be happening. Annie said, "That's all I wanted to say. I am a great ally of yours." Annie throws the microphone back to Jake. Jake said, "I don't know what that was about, but this family here is the only true American family. To be American is to embrace the cultures, values and opinions and other things to enjoy and to tolerate the differences of others. These Axis German invaders don't know that, and they want to rule us and make us live by their ways. We are not going to let that happen. We will fight to defend this beautiful land so future generations can enjoy it and we will make sure Burger Meister does not become the ruler of the world." Everyone claps.

Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon gather outside behind a bush and they look at a food store. Jake said, "We have an agreement with the owner of the store to supply food for us, so we can liberate this land. But as you can see, the Axis Germans found out." They look inside the store and they see the food merchant is tied up by Axis Germans and they are forking information from him. They see his head jerk left and right and he does not respond to the Axis Germans commands. The Axis Germans fire their guns at him and they destroy him and he explodes like a pinata and candy pours out. Jake said, "There's two of them and four of us. This will be our first attack on them." Jake hands Annie, Isaac and Wayon a gun and they go in the store and Jake said, "Freeze! Put your hands up." Jake sees that one of the Axis Germans is about to call for help and Jake shoots the radio out of his hands. Jake said, "You will tell us where the nearest stronghold is, or I will humiliate you by editing photos of yourself doing embarrassing things. Jake shows them a photo of an Axis German General wearing Women's girdle. The Axis German said, "I cannot betray my god, Burger Meister." Jake said, "Suit yourself." Jake shoots the Axis German in the head and he breaks and there is some red goo on his face and candy pours out of him. Annie looks at it with suspicion. Jake holds his gun at the other Axis Germans and he said, "Answer me or you become a pinata like him!" The Axis German freaks out in pain and he said, "It is down the street on the fifth block where fourth street meets fifth street." Jake said, "Thank you for being a good Axis German." Jake handcuffs the Axis Germans and he said, "I'm taking you back to base." They walk out of the store and Annie said, "I don't think you gave that Axis German a fair chance." Jake said, "They never gave me a fair chance. They always shoot first and ask questions later. If we want to defeat them, we just have to beat them at their own game."

Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon see a mob of Axis Germans in the street and they head for the four heroes. Jake takes out his gun and he starts shooting them down and they explode into candy. Annie, Isaac, and Wayon do the same. Then they see some resistance soldiers appear from behind structures on the street and they shoot down the Axis Germans. They arrive back at the base and they see Dana and her band are singing old-fashioned songs with rock and roll instruments being used. Jake ties the Axis German to the wall of a prison room and Jake strips the Axis German of weapons or things he can use to call for help. Dana's song ends, and Jake gets back up on stage. Jake said, "Thank you again, Dana and band for another beautiful song that deserves to be a hit record. I've just got word that there is an enemy stronghold at these coordinates not far from here. We will be heading there to destroy it and we may teach these pinata fools not to be messing with us no more. We must plan a bombing run of the place. We need land forces to capture Axis Germans and see if we can acquire more information from them. Many of us will turn into pinatas but it is a risk worth taking. We need all the help we can get. May the good spirits be with us."

Annie, Jake, Isaac, and Wayon board a plane with other soldiers and resistance members. They fly off to the base. They look over the city and Annie said, "Why are we not getting spotted?" Jake said, "This plane is made to look just like the enemy planes. They will not know the difference and it will confuse them in battle." Annie said, "How can you tell enemies in battle then?" Jake said, "I don't either. I never dogfight in this. I only use it to shoot at targets on the ground. Like what we are going to do in this raid." The plane closes in on the base and it lands and it drops off Annie, Isaac, Wayon, and other resistance members trained in ground combat. They take out their guns and they stand back as the front defense gate and turrets are shot down by the fighter planes. The front defenses are destroyed, and the resistance members run in and they shoot and destroy Axis Germans they see guarding the place. Annie destroys a few Axis Germans and she notices their blood looks weird. It looks like light red goo. Annie kills another one and some of this goo splashes on her face. Annie wipes it off with her right hand and she smells it and it has no smell. Annie licks it and Annie said, "This tastes like ketchup. I think this is ketchup." Annie quickly turns around and blasts another Axis German and she hears a splatting sound and she looks at his body and she sees there are MacDoogal's brand ketchup packets that have been broken on him with the gun fire. Annie grabs the broken packets and she said, "Why would a burger joint that won't be around until 1955 be able to have their ketchup be placed on Axis Germans in 1944?" Annie looks at the packet more carefully and she reads the copyright year. It said, "Copyright 2001 MacDoogal's Corp." Annie said, "I'm not crazy. This was copyrighted in 2001. I have proof that all this might be fake." Annie finds Isaac and Wayon and she shows them the packet. Isaac said, "Yeah, we know we are from the future." Annie said, "No one else knows and this can prove I'm not crazy."

A giant particle cannon comes out from the top of the fortress base and it blasts down and destroys a few of the large bomber planes orbiting the base. Annie said, "Particle cannons have not been invented yet. I know something is horribly wrong with this place." The G.I. commander said, "All ground groups, come with me." Annie follows him with Isaac and Wayon. They run inside, and they shoot down some Axis Germans and they see robotic turrets from science fiction come from the ceiling and they start shooting laser shots at the resistance crew. The commander gets shot and he turns into a pinata and candy and ketchup leak out of him everywhere and Annie goes to him and she looks at his wounds. Annie sees more MacDoogal's ketchup in packets. Annie shoots down the turrets and she shoots down more Axis Germans with anger and she sees more of the commanding officers are getting destroyed. Annie said, "I'm taking command here and I know what to do." Everyone follows Annie and she runs up the stairs and she goes to the room the particle cannon controls are being held in. Annie sees a large group of Axis Germans appear behind the resistance group and Annie fearlessly guns down the Axis Germans. She sees the particle cannon room is locked with a heavy metal door. Annie fires at it and it does nothing. Annie grabs out her radio and she calls Jake and Jake answers as he is flying the bomber dodging the particle cannon blasts. Jake said, "Annie what is it?" Annie said, "Jake, I am in command now. The G.I. commanders have been destroyed. I need you to bomb coordinates 3A 7T." Jake said, "But you will get destroyed too." Annie said, "I know what I'm doing and don't question me! I am willing to give up my life for this and that is what we all agreed to. If you do nothing, we will lose. If you do this, we will have a chance at winning." Jake said, "Copy, commander." Jake fires a few missiles at the coordinates at the back of the base. The back is destroyed, and the heavy metal door falls down in a heap of rubble. Axis Germans fall apart into candy and ketchup as well. Annie sees that she is unharmed and so are Isaac and Wayon. The three of them and a few resistance members run in the particle cannon room and Annie shoots and destroys the Axis German working the cannon. Annie takes control of the cannon and she sees she can use it to destroy certain parts of the city. Annie sees walls of Axis German guards that prevent people from leaving or entering. Annie fires the cannon on them and vaporizes them. Annie aims the cannon at Axis German bombers and she shoots them down and destroys them. Annie destroys most Axis German stronghold buildings in the city. There are no more Axis German forces in the sky. Jake lands his plane and he meets up with the resistance team.

The Axis German regional leader meets with the resistance members and he sees Isaac and Wayon are at the particle cannon and it is aimed at anything that could be coming from the sky. The regional leader signs a form that declares the Third Reich no longer owns any of San Francisco and they are to leave at once. Civilians come out from hiding and they honor their heroes of the city and mostly Annie since she was the brains behind defeating the Axis Germans. A voice suddenly says, "Cut!" Annie appears in her normal clothes on a stage and she sees Axis German set pieces and she sees everyone looks like they normally do again. Annie said, "What happened?" A director said, "I've signed an agreement with your mayor to unexpectedly take you in, so you would think you were actually in the 1940's where the Axis Germans may have ruled San Francisco. It was sponsored by the MacDoogals Corporation so they can promote their new pinatas that have burger flavored candies and they are coated with their own brand of ketchup. There is a pill for each of you to become your own character. There was something wrong with the pills I gave you, Isaac and Wayon because you still knew about the real world and your real life." Annie said, "What do I get from this?" The director said, "This is going to be a great play. It will be put on VHS and DVD and if this is successful, more of these will be made. It is much better when the people don't know they're acting and they think it is real." Annie said, "I meant, how much money to I get from this?" The director said, "Nothing at all. Your mayor has gotten all the money from this and he will be using it to build his new mansion and his new artificial beach resort." Annie said, "This sucks. I'm leaving. I will be aware of you in the future." Annie sees her friends and Jake looks dazed and he said, "I don't know what just happened, but I suddenly feel airsick." Annie said, "It's alright. It's all over now." Annie sees Dana dressed like she normally is with her band and Dana said, "Annie, do you know what just happened?" Annie said, "I know but you won't believe me." Dana said, "I believe anything you say. I know this place is supposed to be a secret." Annie said, "I will tell you all then." All the people that did not know they were in the play gather around Annie and she explains what just happened."
